that she will never race again.

The way some of the wise bookmakers took liberties with Perverse while the betting too the Gazelle Stakes was under way yester-day caused a lot of gossip. First they put up 4 to 5 on their slates and took in a raft of the public's money. Then they raised it to even for anther bunch, after which, when there was a lull, they boosted the price to to 5, taking in another wad from the unsophisticated. Meanwhile there was one of the largest plunges of the year going on, with Flip Flap as a magnet. Up and down the line rushed muscular commissioners who plastered the books—or rather those who were not in the know—with $500, $1,000 and $2,000 wagers. The plunge created a panic in the ring and Flip Flap was sent to the post a 1 to 2 favorite. Jack Bennet, her the post a 1 to 2 favorite. Jack Bennet, her owner; George Langdon, John A. Drake, A. B. Tucker had $5,000 on Accountant in the handicap, the wager being placed by Bill Porter when the odds had gone up to 8 to 5. Accountant, by the way ran a fine race considering the weight that he packed. He gave seven pounds to Pater, fourteen to James Reddick, twenty-one to Samson, sixteen to Vino, thirty-one to Maxnar, thirty-seven to Cederstrome, forty to Garnish, thirty-nine, to Brookdale and was played from 30 down to 10. Miller also a package of old badge numbers ready to be posted. Miller has been in the same kind of trouble before, according to Robert Pinkerton. He was turned over to the Coney lsiand police. Last fall a counterfeiter was caught at the Jamaica track, but he was discharged in court. Miller worked his game by standing near a bookmaker so that he could be supplyed to the standing that he could be supplyed to the standing that the supplyed to the standing that the standing that the standing the standing could hear a bet made, together with the badge number. Then he posted the same number on his own badge and if the horse

-Work of Carsmen. POUGHREEPSIE, N. Y., June 18.—Coach Goodwin to-day selected his four eared crew for the varsity race, settling the fight be-tween Earle and White for No. 8 in the var-sity boat. White went into the four and Earle got the varsity job. The four is made up of Perrine, bow: Norris, 2: White, 3: Tay-Earle got the varsity job. The four is made up of Perrine, bow; Norris, 2; White, 3; Taylor, stroke. The crew took an easy row down the course this morning, and in the afternoon, with the tide setting north, there were two four oared combinations had a race, the first boat winning. The varsity whipped the freshmen in a two mile launt and went on for the rest of the distance. The Columbia varsity crew rows with the same clipping action that characterized the Wisconsin eight of 1903. It is the typical Yara-Yara stroke. Suarez has been moved to bow in the freshman boat and Willis is at No. 3.

Owing to the fact that Relley, No. 5 in the Pennsylvania varsity, had to go to Philadelphia to get his degree with his class, Lavery took his place. Ward has been working his two fours sixteen miles a day. They row four miles in separate fours in the morning and do four more in the octopede with sculls, right after. This is repeated in the afternoon. The octopede it being used to pace the varsity boats. The freshmen were out in their patched up shell, which holds all right.

Cornell did rather easy work this morning, but in the afternoon all the crews went over the course. Courtney gave a lot of time to the freshmen, and they showed some improvement. The Syracuse launch came in about 60 clock. The members of the crew arrived late at night and went to the river villa. They will use the boat house farthest south on the Poughkeepsie side, used last year by Wisconsin.

Harvard Garsmen Watch Rivals in a Half Mile Brush.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 13 .- Yale's varsity caremen were disappointed in their plan to row over the four mile course on time this afternoon. John Kennedy, the coach, waited anxiously until 6 o'clock this evening for a strong southwester to subside and finally had to content himself by sending both varsity and freshmen eights in rough took the lead and at the end of the brush were half a boat's length ahead. The varsity rowed a 28 stroke and the junior crew a 30 stroke.

Harvard's freshmen eight rowed four miles practice in long stretches this afternoon. When they returned, Coach Wray took the varsity eight down to the naval station, rowing a 28 stroke and returning to the boat house at a 27 rate. Just before the Crimson crews reached their float Yale's eight was seen starting on its half mile race, and the Harvard oarsmen rested on their cars to watch the work of their rivals. Yale's time was caught at 3 minutes 12 seconds from the Harvard launch. The poor conditions were responsible for the slow time.

Harvard's fresimen eight made two changes in the boat this morning. Mulligan was temporarily absent from No. 4, and Crandail, who was at No. 2, was put in his place. E. Cutler took Crandail's seat at No. 2, but he was replaced by Butler this afternoon while the crews were at practice, the shift being made from the launch. All the oarsmen are in good health at both camps.

J. A. Bonner's Pip Pipp, with Miller up. showed a marked improvement over her per formance in the Broadway States and con the ciaselle praises for three year-old filling formance in the Broadway Stakes and control of Classille Stakes, for three year old fillies, one mile and a statement, at transport restorder. She was a real great thire, too, for the was pluggers, who loaded their money of until the price dropped from to to to to to 20. On form it looked like if. P. Whitpey's Perverse, but the plunge on Flip Flap sent the order against the Meditier filly from a to 10 opening up to 4 to 2. At the raising of the barrier Lyne gut off eat with Ferrorse, but allowed Militer, who began stowly, to cut acrosse in front of him and take the rais with Flip Flap. After that it was a boat race, to use the language of the talent, for Flip Flap galloped along easily in front all the way to the wire, where she won by a length and a half in 1 set. Lyne did not overcarr himself on Perverse, who showed little of the speed which enabled her to win the Ladies' Stakes at Belmont. Alex. Shields's Mediting Daisy was third, ten lengths back, while St. Ursula pulled up lame.

W. H. Brown's Accountant picked up 121 pounds in the handleap at a mile and a sixteenth and won easily. He opened an even money favorite, but went up to 6 to 5 because of the heavy play on Pater, who was lowered. from 4 to 2 to 1. in 1:47 3-5. Garnish had a length and a half over Magnar, 8 to 1. Pater was cutrum and Miller won the opening race, for two-yearolds, five furiongs, with Al Powell, 8 to 1, second choice. He made all the running and remped some three lengths in front of F. W.

Seeley's Black Mate, a 30 to 1 shot, who got up in time to nall the place from Halton, 15 to 1, by three parts of a length. Sydney Paget's Mexican Shiver, 6 to 5 favorite, was pinched off in the first quarter, and then failed to get near the front at any stage thereafter. The time was 1:02.

Mr. Cutton's Knight of Elway, 8 to 8 favorite, led always in the steeplechase at about two miles and galloped home five lengths before the Brownleigh Park Stable's Glengate, 60 to 1. T. Hitchcock, 3r. s., Tom Cogas, backed down to 4, was a poor third, but he might have done better had it not been for the fact that he stumbled after taking the paddock jump, Ray being thrown out of the saddle momentarily. Although Ray scrambled back to his seat, Tom Cogan lost so much ground that his case was hopeless. J. W.
Colt's Fergus, 2 to 1, fell and was later on destroyed. The time was 3:55 3-5.

A world of money was lost on Frank Farrell's Arklirta, backed down to even money in the fifth race at about six furiongs. He had an outside position and was crowded in the getaway, so that Miller did not secure plain sailing until he had covered a quarter of a mile or so. Then Right and True, backed down to 15, who had taken the track at the outset, was breezing along easily in front and despite Miller's hard riding on the favorite

Maniden, Conn., June 18.—There was a golf.

Manipen, Cong., June 18.—There was a golf tournament at Portland last year as part of the Lewis and Clark centenary, but the tournament that began at the Meriden Golf Club to-day as one of the features of the centennial of the city is the first to be held in the Raet. All conditions favored an enjoyable day on the 2,612 Yard course, but the field was not as numerous as expected. Many New Haven players, including W. K. Shepard, the State champion, had to stay away on account of vale examinations. The low score prize was won by E. H. Tredenick of the home club with this card.

F. E. Sands managed the tournament. The summary:

First Sixteen—E. H. Tredenick, Meriden, 82;
J. A. Toole, New Haven, 84; F. K. Bull, New Haven, 87; F. E. Sands, Meriden, 89; W. J. Prouty, Meriden, 99; H. D. F. Lockwood, Meriden, 91; H. F. Ferry, New Haven, 92; E. T. Bradstreet, Meriden, 92; G. H. Wilcox, Meriden, 93; D. W. Camp, Middletown, 94; E. W. Plerce, Meriden, 96; E. W. Smith, Meriden, 96; F. L. Murdock, Meriden, 97; D. E. Butler, Middletown, 88.

Boston, June 13.—Play began to-day in the State golf championship tournament on the course of the Brae Burn Country Club, at Newton, with an eighteen hole qualifying round, the lowest thirty-two to compete at match play. A. M. Lockwood of Aliston, the present champion, led the field with 78 and G. S. Crocker, the country club veteran, was second with 79. P. W. Whittemore of the home club was third with 80. Five players were tied at 81, four at 82, three at 84, five at 85, eight at 89 and four at 87. The Brae Burn cub won the silver shield offered by G. Herbert Windeler for the club whose members turned in the best five scores.

The annual invitation golf tournament of the Knollwood Country Club, which begins this morning, is to be strictly a metropolitan gathering. Alt of the fifty odd entries represent clubs in this district, and as the names of Walter J. Travis and Jerome D. Travers are not included the field looks to be an open one.

not included the field looks to be an open one.

Among those who will play are Howard Gee. of Princeton, Donald McKeilar, the St. Paul's schoolboy; S. D. Bowers, Brooklawn; J. D. Foot, the Pinehurst winner, and Ralph Carroll of the home club. There will be an eighteen hole medal play qualifying round for first, second and third sixteens. The train, which leaves the Grand Central Station at 9:05 A. M. for White Plains, will be the latest the golfers can take and reach the links in time to compete. The entries follow:

Malcolm Stuart, St. Andrews Golf Club; W. J. Swords, Baitusrol Golf Club; A. E. Hoyt, Fox Hills Golf Club; Joseph Sherman, Westneld Golf Club; Franklin Lockwood, Fairfield Caunty Golf Club; Dr. Delimar, Englewood Golf Club; Joha W. Farquar, Briscriff Golf Club; Spotwood D. The first revision of the season in the Metropolitan Golf Association handicap ratings has been issued by Leighton Calkins, chairman of the committee. It contains eight reduced ratings, some of which are due to voluntary reports. Others are new on the list and have been reported by their clubs in order that they may not have to play from scratch under the new rule. In all, the revised list contains the names of forty-four golfers. This revised list will be used in the Saturday handicap at the Knollwood Country Club.

PHILADELPRIA, June 18.—The distinguishing feature of the invitation golf tournament of the Huntingdon Valley Golf Club at Noble to-day was the improved showing of Miss Pauline F. Mackay, the national champion. Her opponent was Miss Florence Condon! It was Miss Condon's match on the outholes, as Miss Mackay was continually in trouble through the fair green and was I down at the turn. There was no mistake about the quality of the Bostonian's play on the inward journey however, who had squared the match at the next hole and won out by 2 up and I to play. Miss Mackay's card was the best of the day. Miss Mollie Adam's played the golf of which he is capable against Miss Gertrudé Gilbert. Going out in a 40, she was 2 up at the turn and won out on the lifteenth green. The closest match was that between Miss Harriet Curtis and Miss F. S. Porter, the two Boston players drawing it out to a 20 hole affair. Miss Curtis, after being 2 down at the turn, was down a single hole playing to the home green. Winning this, the extra holes were demanded, and Miss Porter won out.

Team matches will be a feature on the links of the Deal Golf Club this scaken. The Forest Hill Field Club is scheduled to have a team there on June 30, followed by the Hollywood Golf Club on July 14, Seabright Golf Club, July 28, and Engiewood Golf Club, September & Beginning on Saturday, June 16, there will be some form of competition ever Foreign advices state that long driving honors in the recent amsteur championship tournaments of Great Britain at Hoylake, were again conferred on Edward Blackwell. With a following wind the majority of players found it necessary to use their cleeks for their second shots at the third (the leng hole), for fear of finding the cross bunkers with their drivers. Blackwell alone went for the bunker and carried it.

prevent his playing at knollwood this week.

The Britons, though with great reluctance, are slowly but surely coming to see the wisdom of a medal play qualifying round in amateur championship tournaments. This plan has for years been in operation in this country. The record breaking field at Hoylake proved so unwieldy as to rouse the golfers. No definite action has been taken as yet, but but after much talk there seems to be a preponderance of opinion in favor of a thirty-six hole stroke competition on the first day and a selection of the top thirty we for the second stage.

Principles of the contenses of the Principles of the Principles of the Pole Grounds yesterday the New Lorse could not break through the barrier of Ewing's good pitching. Eving's epit ball was more than they could fathom in that time, but in the sight inning they got up on their toos and pulled together for one of those determined pinch railies that have won them many a game. They had no hits to spare when the strife was over, but had just enough bunched bingles to win a close game. Devilo batted in the run that broke the tie, and his conditions in providing base hits that made for runs were frowne and McGann. I here was not much in the game outside of the ordinary. The hitting was not hard nor the fielding ornamental, barring a running catch by Lobert. It was a plain, unembellished fracas, but one requiring hard wor. to get runs. Bowerman's throwing helped keep the Reds in check. Only one base was stolen on him, though that one steal was one-fourth of a run. Huggins did the stealing. He took first on four balls in the first inning and after his steal was advanced to third on Seymour's sacrifice. Kelley brought him in with a hit to port.

Bresnahan, who gets to first the first time.

his steal was advanced to third on Seymour's sacrifice. Kelley brought him in with a hit to port.

Breanahan, who gets to first the first time up more frequently than he fails to do so, singled in New York's half of the first. The next three batters did not hit beyond the infield. Taylor pitched well all through. There were only two innings in which the Reds had more than one man on base at a time, and on those two occasions two men were out.

For the champions men died on bases in the second and third innings, and none got on in the fourth and fifth. Browne laid down a bunt in the sixth which Ewing might have fielded, but which he let Lobert look after. Lobert could not come in in time to head off such a fast man as Browne. McGann hit solidly to right, and Browne, who had started, reached third. He scored on Mertes's fly to Odwell. Dahlen's out advanced McGann, and Devlin sneaked a dinky fly over short that scored McGann.

There was a red leg on base in every round except the fifth. After getting out of a hole in the eighth, the New Yorks bade fair to get into another in the ninth. Corcoran led off and hit safely to centre. Lobert sacrificed. Schlei was disgruntled at having a bad strike called on him and made no effort to hit the next one, which was the third and straight over. Dahlen fired Ewing's grounder across to McGann with as much unconcern as if his team were a million runs ahead. The score:

Pitcher Beebe, Cub and collegian, struck out ten Brookiyn batters yesterday, and his season's record of winning games is still inviolate. The score was 2 to 2 at the end of the seventh inning; then the Cubs came with a rush. Schulte's infield hit, Ritter's passed ball, Chance's sacrifice and Casey's bad throw home to catch Schulte gave the Chicagos a run in the eighth and broke the tie. By good inside work the Spuds harvested three runs in the ninth. Moran doubled, and Eason was not spry enough on Beebe's bunt to nall Moran at third. Slagle's fly scored Moran. Alperman made a scrumptious play on Sheckard's ground hit. Schulte walked, and Chance's hit brought Beebe home. Chance and Schulte made a double steal on Moran. Alperman made a scrumptious play on Sheckard's ground hit. Schulte walked, and Chance's hit brought Beebe home. Chance and Schulte made a double steal on which the latter tailied. Lumley's double scored Casey and Batch in the first inning, after the first two named had hit safely, but Brooklyn's batting rally died in its infancy, and it was horse collars for the Donovans the rest of the way. The Chicagos drew alongside in the fourth inning, the medium of which accomplishment consisted of Tinker's single, Lewis's bad throw, after a fine stop of Evers's hit. Moran's out at first base and Beebe's single. The score:
